From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear Parish Family,

I have to keep my letter short this week. So much going on in our parish, even though it is the summer months when things are “supposed” to slow down, that there is not room for a long letter!

With that in mind, I want to wish all the dads of our family a Blessed Father's Day. Looking at the readings for this weekend, we see the calling and gifts God has given to His disciples. He calls them to be compassionate, to be shepherds for the people, and to be workers in the fields. He gives them authority over evil and the ability to cast out demons, He calls them to proclaim the Kingdom.

He calls each of you dear fathers of your children to do the same. You have been given and called to all the same as fathers. Compassion, shepherding, workers in the field, authority, proclaiming the Kingdom of Heaven, and protecting your children from evil, the devil and the evil spirits of each age, are all aspects of being a good father. Your children are your sheep. Your family is your field. Give freely to your children what you have received from Jesus, all you Catholic Christian fathers. Give them Jesus, Himself.

Joyfully yours,

Fr. Michael McCormick
